

Harrogate Christmas & Gift News

Product planning

Buyers looking for exciting new novelties and gifts for all occasions and particularly festive products for the 2012 season should make a beeline for Harrogate Christmas & Gift Fair from 15th to 18th January. The show promises six halls packed with the latest and best products from artificial Christmas trees and lighting to decorations, gifts, floral, garden products, toys and even furniture.

For those looking to grab a bargain, the Volume and Clearance Section which will be housed at the nearby Majestic Hotel, will be offering a wide and varied selection of products from toiletries, housewares, stationery, electrical, toys and other essential everyday items.

Register today for free entry at www.harrogatefair.com

A festive flavour

As a market leading seasonal decoration supplier, Festive Productions Ltd has over 7,000 products across several categories including British made tinsel, trees, lights and tree decorations and will be providing a one-stop-Christmas shop at Harrogate Christmas & Gift Fair.

Don't miss Festive's exciting new, competitive range for 2012 including everyday floristry and giftware sold under the 'Creative Living' brand with a dedicated catalogue, showroom and unique merchandising solution.

Established in 1983 and based in Cwmbran, South Wales, Festive has 50 years collective experience within the Christmas and gift industry and still produces over 12 million metres of high quality tinsel per year at its UK factory.

Festive is THE destination whatever the time of year and whatever the occasion!

Floral favourites

Winter Flora has been a supplier of premium quality natural home decorations for over 40 years and its products can be purchased through many garden centres, home decoration and gift shops. From pretty posies to hand tied bouquets, wood rose wreaths and arrangements to Oak Trees and Wooden 3D cut outs, Winter Flora's collection will provide an eye-catching display whatever the occasion.

Visit Winter Flora at Harrogate Christmas & Gift Fair and don't forget to follow the company on Facebook to get updates about new products and ranges – www.facebook.com/Winterflora